

PODCAST MEDIA KIT

Give It Voice: honest conversations that deserve to be heard.

Khushboo produces and hosts thoughtful conversations about wellbeing, money, courage and lived experience - creating space for practical insight without sensationalism.

Format

A host-led video conversation published through Khushboo's YouTube channel, with short-form moments suitable for social discovery.

Editorial tone

Warm, respectful and curious. Guests are invited to explain their experience in plain language and set boundaries before recording.

Sample themes

- Wellness, resilience and the realities behind personal growth.
- Money, independence and practical conversations people often avoid.
- Courage, identity, motherhood, reinvention and lived experience.
- Work, creativity and the quieter decisions behind visible success.

What guests can expect

- A pre-recording alignment on the topic, comfort areas and anything that should remain private.
- A conversational interview rather than a scripted performance.
- Clear recording logistics and realistic publishing expectations.
- Respectful editing and a focused episode title based on the actual conversation.

Guest booking & sponsorship

Guest invitations and sponsorship enquiries are reviewed for topic fit, audience relevance and practical feasibility. A conversation or enquiry is not a guarantee of selection, publishing date, reach or campaign outcome.

Let's give your work a clearer voice.
