

WEDDING CONTENT MEDIA KIT

Social-first memories, delivered while they still feel fresh.

Give It Voice creates candid, phone-first vertical content that complements - and does not replace - the couple's photographer and filmmaker.

Coverage options

Essential

Agreed hours of candid coverage, curated vertical clips, one highlight reel and private raw-clip transfer.

Story

Extended coverage, curated clips, up to three short reels and a private raw-clip transfer.

Sample delivery rhythm

- Pre-event brief covering timings, priorities, privacy and family boundaries.
- Raw selects typically shared within 48 hours.
- Edited reel delivery typically within 5-7 working days.
- One consolidated revision round per agreed reel.

Pricing note

Custom quoted after scope. Travel, accommodation, venue permissions, additional hours, rush delivery and extra edits are quoted separately.

What this service is - and is not

- Designed for quick, social-ready vertical sharing and candid behind-the-scenes moments.
- It does not replace traditional photography, cinematography, drone coverage, live streaming or a long-form wedding film.
- Usage, music direction, delivery format and any same-day request are confirmed in writing before booking.
